EXPERIENCE

Energy and Environment Reporter, Washington Examiner, Washington, D.C. 07/2023 – present

- Co-authors “Daily on Energy,” a newsletter focused on energy policy and law within the three branches of government, along with the private sector. Utilized previous experience covering Congress to focus on committee-level activity and legislation.
- Pitch and write breaking news stories surrounding new developments in the energy space.

Congress Reporter and Producer for Congress Minutes, POLITICO, Arlington, Va. 09/2021 – 07/2023

- One of two main reporters for POLITICO’s Congress Minutes, a platform that captures incremental and significant moments in both chambers of Congress. Along with pitching and covering events on the Hill that are often overlooked, I’ve worked to aid both the Congress and policy teams in advancing their coverage.
- From September 2021 to May 2022, I was both reporting and producing for the platform. This included creating an entirely separate workflow for the CMS, along with publishing and tweeting our work. Over the course of two years, we’ve amassed 11.3K followers on Twitter.

Digital Producer, POLITICO, Arlington, Va. 09/2020 – 09/2021

- Curate content to be web-ready under tight deadlines. Some responsibilities include copy-editing reporters’ work in adherence to A.P. style, filing and tagging stories in the CMS, and transforming articles into works of art by adding photos and videos, all in a matter of five to 10 minutes.

Editorial Intern 06/2020–08/2020

- Reported for POLITICO’s sustainability desk, covering environmental policy and related issues while helping fellow reporters with their research
- Wrote for POLITICO Pro’s weekly newsletters and contributed fresh story pitches

Get Up DC! Intern, WUSA9, Washington, D.C. 09/2019 – 05/2020

- Assisted reporters out in the field by handling equipment, managing social media, and finding interviewees every morning at 4 AM
- Wrote digital content and scripts for early morning news coverage, and simultaneously created news packages

Breaking News Intern, BuzzFeed News, New York, N.Y. 06/2019 – 08/2019

- Reported for the general assignment and breaking news desk, and wrote pieces on various topics such as gun control, race issues, celebrity news, and more
- Helped create a database for an investigative piece about Jeffrey Epstein, and assisted with similar projects
