

KENNETH TRAN

109 Valentine Drive, Manchester, NH 03103

ktran739@anselm.edu | (603) 858-4890 | Twitter: @knthtn | kennethtran.journoportfolio.com

EDUCATION

Saint Anselm College

Bachelor of Arts in Politics and Communication

GPA: 3.5/4.0

Manchester, NH

May 2023

EXPERIENCE

AAJA Fellow for All In with Chris Hayes

MSNBC

New York, NY (Remote)

June 2021 – Present

- Research stories for elements and sound bites with a focus on politics for show segments
- Fact-check segment scripts and information on various stories and editorials
- Transcribes and logs daily rundown meetings and tape

Granite State News Collaborative

Project Coordinator

Various Locations, NH

February 2021 – May 2021

- Managed a small cohort of other student journalists on an in-depth data project examining student diversity on New Hampshire colleges
- Created a reporting plan for the project including one mainbar story and four sidebar stories
- Wrote mainbar story examining diversity in New Hampshire's largest colleges and universities while also writing a sidebar story examining financial disparity at Dartmouth College

Election SOS Fellow

October 2020 – November 2020

- Reported on underrepresented issues in New Hampshire such as voting in nursing homes and Vietnamese Americans in the 2020 election
- Live-tweeted political events for the collaborative and partners such as Manchester Ink Link
- Relayed tips from NH's Secretary of State Office to collaborative partners

Co-Chair of Communication Committee

New Hampshire Institute of Politics

Manchester, NH

August 2020 - Present

- Advises and assigns blog posts and newsletter stories of NHIOP's events and activities to committee members
- Curates a monthly newsletter on NHIOP activities and events
- Manages NHIOP Twitter and Instagram accounts

News Runner

ABC News

Manchester, NH

February 2020

- Assisted reporters and production covering the New Hampshire Democratic Debate and the New Hampshire Presidential Primary

SKILLS

- Vietnamese
- Copyediting
- MediaCentral
- AP Style
- AVID iNEWS
- Microsoft Excel