

Jiahui Huang

jh4293@columbia.edu | +1 332-217-6674 | Twitter: @ivy\_jiahuihuang
LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/jiahui-huang/> | www.ivyjiahuihuang.com

EXPERIENCE

---

- Reporter, Eurasianet, New York June 2022 – September 2022
- Covered China's investment in Central Asia, local climate change stories in Central Asian countries, wrote two stories per week, and produced in-depth features about China's energy trade with Central Asian governments.
- Editorial Intern, Reuters, Beijing July – October 2020
- Worked with the bureau chief to contribute to an investigation on a dam collapse in China due to climate change and wrote stories on international students in the U.S. whose F-1 visas were cancelled; created a database of COVID-19 daily updates in China.
- Marketing and Communication Intern, Comics Youth, Liverpool March 2019 – June 2020
- Curated the Illustrating Futures project at the Tate Modern from March to June 2019; designed web and video production for this project, establish a youth newspaper for the young people in Liverpool; worked with young people from underserved communities to tackle their mental health issues using zines and comics.
- Multimedia Intern, University of Liverpool, Liverpool June – July 2019
- Created a nine-month social media campaign for an academic year; produced a series of videos, graphics, gifs, and pictures for the social media campaign which aimed to develop students' academic skills; wrote proposed posts for Twitter and Instagram.
  - Wrote a guidebook for students at the School of the Arts to increase their awareness of available academic resources.
- News Intern and Freelancer, The Guardian, Beijing and Liverpool July 2019 – March 2020
- Scooped the international news media on a story about abusive business practices at Huawei, used encrypted social media like Signal to interview sources and protect him from the local police's surveillance.
  - Wrote breaking news and feature stories about the death of whistleblower Dr. Li Wenliang, the first legal victories for China's MeToo Movement, limitations on drones in Tiananmen Square right before the 70th anniversary of the P.R.C., and covered Hong Kong protest.
- Editorial Intern, World Insight with Tian Wei, China Global Television Network, Beijing July – September 2018
- Produced a maximum of seven news videos per day on topics including the U.S.-China trade war, Korean Peninsula denuclearization, U.S.-E.U. trade talks, among others. Operated social media accounts like Twitter, Facebook, YouTube for the program. Wrote script and voiceover in English.

EDUCATION

---

- Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, New York
- MS (Graduated with Honors, top 5%), The Toni Stabile Center for Investigative Journalism August 2021 – May 2022
- Master's project: Investigating the unequal access of the marginalized Chinese immigrants to social security net after Hurricane Ida and the pandemic and their long-term affordable housing issues, holding the federal, state, and city-level government agencies accountable.
  - Beat reporting on undocumented workers in New York City about both Latino and Chinese undocumented immigrants and their access to the Excluded Workers Fund and the local day labor markets. Received honors for the course. Investigating Healthcare: investigative Impella, a medical device, which may lead to bleeding and other adverse events to patients with heart failure. Data: applied Python to create visualization and a data diary about school cafeteria inspections in New York during COVID-19.
- University of Liverpool, Liverpool, U.K.
- BA (Hons), Communication Studies September 2016 – May 2020
- Research: Wrote commentary in People's Daily on Donald Trump and Intercultural competence, produced academic papers and designed academic posters, using both qualitative and quantitative methodologies to research and code.
  - Student Media: Wrote local community stories about individuals in Liverpool, wrote feature and breaking news and produced videos for the Sphinx and the Tab Liverpool. Established the first bilingual student magazine, X-Mirror, covering child labor, failure of inspections on campus in China; Enactus (refugee women from Syria and South Sudan; "Suzhou Embroidery" Chinese culture development project).

SKILLS

---

LANGUAGES: English (Bilingual), Mandarin (Native), Spanish (Elementary Proficiency)
MULTIMEDIA: Adobe Audition, Lightroom, Photoshop, InDesign, Premiere Pro; Python, Excel, Tableau; WordPress; Nvivo
INVESTIGATIVE: PACER, FOIA/FOIL, NEXSIS, Bloomberg Terminal, Bloomberg Law, 990 forms of N.G.O.s, NYC ACRIS
MEMBERSHIP: Asian American Journalists Association, Investigative Reporters and Editors, #NICAR22 Mentorship Program

REFERENCES

---

Lily Kuo. The Washington Post's China bureau chief, lily.kuo@washpost.com
Ryan Woo. Reuters's Beijing bureau chief, ryan.woo@thomsonreuters.com
Bill Grueskin. Professor of Professional Practice at Columbia Journalism School, wg2183@columbia.edu
Sheila Coronel, Director of Toni Stabile Center for Investigative Journalism, ssc2136@columbia.edu